

HAYNES DISBURBED BY WET OPPOSITION

Tells W. C. T. U. Convention Prohibition Situation Causes Concern.

POINTS TO TWO PERILS

Pessimism and Optimism Both May Be Harmful, He Says.

WARNING OF ANARCHY

Contents Every Citizen Is Under Contract to Enforce Dry Law.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD, PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—The chief event of today's program of the International Convention of the W. C. T. U. was an address to-night by Roy C. Haynes, Federal Prohibition Commissioner, in an address before the International W. C. T. U. to-night lined up the forces against and for prohibition as follows:

AGAINST.

1. A highly developed propaganda.
2. An unfavorable attitude on the part of a small minority of public officials.
3. Apathy on the part of a good many Christian citizens, but this element I am glad to report, is rapidly diminishing.
4. An organized attack upon the efforts of enforcement and an effort to discredit the service.

FOR.

1. Great organizations, church and secular, great leaders of thought.
2. Those not originally prohibitionists but who are staunch supporters of the law.
3. The population of the great rural sections, particularly of the West, central West and South.
4. The fathers and mothers of the citizens of to-morrow.
5. The women of the Union, now a part of our political parties, and their tremendous force for every righteous cause.

Haynes Lines Up Friends and Foes of Prohibition

Haynes, in his address, pointed out the two perils of the situation. He said that the danger of pessimism was that it would lead to a loss of faith in the law, and the danger of optimism was that it would lead to a loss of faith in the law.

Haynes said that the law was the only way to save the country from anarchy, and that every citizen was under a contract to enforce the law.

SUBSIDY BILL HEADS EXTRA SESSION LIST

Harding Expected to Urge Speed on Ship and Supply Measures.

CLOSE VOTE PREDICTED

Republicans to Put Force Behind Budget Bills in December.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Ship subsidy will form the backbone of the House legislative program for the extra session of Congress called for November 20. The President is expected to address Congress at a joint session Tuesday, November 21, or send a message urging speed with the subsidy and supply bills in an effort to avoid an extra session of the new Congress next spring.

Signs of growing opposition to the ship subsidy bill, especially in the Senate, inspired predictions, even by Republicans, that the vote would be close.

Many Democrats and some Republican leaders say the bill will not get through the Senate by March 4 because of the crash of appropriation and other bills, with the certainty of bitter and determined opposition and possibility of a filibuster against the ship bill.

Republican leaders are preparing to pressure behind the appropriation bills to pass them by March 4. The budget will be submitted early in December at the latest. It has been "cut to the bone," Republican leaders said, predicting reductions would make easier the passage of the annual bills, stripped of legislation under the new Senate and House rules.

The regular appropriation bills cannot be taken up in the House until December, so precedence will be given the ship subsidy measure at the special session. The bill is the only unfinished business in the Senate and may be taken up during opening week. The Dyer and Lynch bill is scheduled to come up next in the Senate, but is not to be pressed to the extent of blocking appropriation and other important bills and may be laid aside early in the regular session, leaders said.

Several investigations adjourned over election, are to be resumed, including the Senate inquiry into gasoline and oil prices. Impachment charges of Representative Keller (Rep., Minn.) against Attorney-General Daugherty are on the House Judiciary Committee's calendar.

A start on farm credit legislation will be made by the farm bills during the short session. Personal credit proposals of several bills already introduced are to be composed and an effort made to work out a reform measure to afford short time loans to farmers. Reintroduction of soldiers' bonus bills also is in prospect.

Divorced Wife Must Pay Bill With Husband

Court Holds Her Responsible on Old Judgment.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD, MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 12.—Although divorced from her husband, a woman has decided that Mrs. Emma J. Stoutenburgh, formerly of Bloomville, must pay a judgment for a bill contracted before she and her husband were divorced.

In January, 1918, J. C. & G. N. Rowe of Onondaga sold to Mr. and Mrs. Stoutenburgh goods amounting to about $126. The husband and wife signed a note to pay the amount. The husband paid part on account and a new note was given. Soon after that the wife obtained a divorce.

GERMANS MAKE BOGUS AMERICAN CIGARETTES

Even Counterfeit the United States Revenue Stamp.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Large tobacco company reported to the Government officials the activities of certain German manufacturers in marketing in Germany cigarettes made of European tobacco in papers cleverly counterfeiting an American brand with its distinguishing picture, even a counterfeit American revenue stamp is used.

Soldiers at Coblenz and American troops reported to the German Government agencies are cooperating with the American manufacturers to punish the German cigarette makers in the German courts under the commercial relations safeguarding the marking of American goods.

Separate prosecutions for counterfeiting American revenue stamps will be brought under provisions of the agreement with Germany for reciprocal protection of Government issues.

GAS KILLS 8 IN AND NEAR PHILADELPHIA

Burglar Tries to Rob Meter; Causes Four Deaths.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—Eight persons died today in Philadelphia and vicinity from illuminating gas poisoning and four others were resuscitated at hospitals with difficulty.

An entire family was killed in West Chester as a result of a jet having been left on accidentally, the authorities say. The two brothers and two sisters, were Frank, Thomas, Alice and Mary Keegan.

The work of a thief who tore a gas meter from the wall to rob it is said to have been responsible for the deaths of Horace Mandy, Frederick Gunther and Ernest Day, negroes, and Mrs. Sadie Francis, a negro, in a lodging house.

Antonio Gutierrez saved the lives of his two brothers, Alberto and Detorito, whom he found in a gas filled room. Andrew Larne and Jacob Aleale, roommates of Germantown were the victims of a leaking jet, but were restored to consciousness.

Manuel Herick Hops Off Before Memphis, Nov. 12.—Representative Manuel Herick of the Eighth Oklahoma district "hopped off" from Memphis for the South last night in one of the airplanes just three minutes before the arrival of Field of a court officer with a writ of replevin for the plane.

The Congressmen's departure ended the strenuous days in Memphis during which he figured in litigation in two of the State courts and two more "magistrate" courts.

NEVADA VOTESTO KEEP LAW FOR EASY DIVORCES

Returns Indicate That Montana Has Authorized Use of Betting Machines—Osteopaths and Chiropractors Win in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12 (Associated Press).—California's adoption of prohibition enforcement, Oregon's restrictions upon nearly all church parochial schools and other private schools, Nevada's decision not to change its divorce laws and Montana's probable authorization of the pari-mutuel system of betting on horse races are among the outstanding decisions on legislation taken by the voters in far Western States at last Tuesday's election.

California's measure makes the Twelfth Amendment to the Federal Constitution and the Volstead act or whatever other enforcement legislation may be passed by Congress, part of the California statutes.

A proposal to allow the issuance of interlocutory decrees of divorce in the trial judge was beaten in Nevada by a majority estimated at more than 2,000. Another proposition on the ballot, which ratifies the present Nevada divorce laws and forbids alimony for a period of five years, had a majority of about 3,200.

The Montana initiative measure to allow the use of pari-mutuel betting on horse races at State and county fairs apparently was carried, as it had a majority of 3,183, with 45,100 votes reported.

Voter's welfare legislation was successful in both Montana and California. A soldiers' bonus passed by the Montana Legislature had a 6,500 majority on a referendum vote, and the California voters approved 60 of the Legislature calling for the issue.

Two bond issues were carried, a $6,000,000 highway block in Colorado and the $10,000,000 series in California for voters' home and farm aid. The fate of Arizona's proposed $2,500,000 issue for the Phoenix-Los Angeles highway is still in doubt.

A public conservation plan for California, by which the State was to undertake the development of all its hydro-electric and water resources, including bonds up to $10,000,000 for the work, was lost by more than 2 to 1 majority.

end ships by the pulling of Attorney-General Daugherty it is expected that many companies whose ships go far afield may ask permission for a similar transfer in order to evade Volsteadism, as for instance when an American ship is permanently on the South American trade, as are some of the vessels of the United Fruit Company.

The other reason for the stringent regulation relates to the well known fact that since the prohibition amendment went into effect there have been many bogus transfers to British and other foreign flags.

Coast Guard Cutter Unable to Find Ship in Distress.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 12.—The Coast Guard cutter Manning reported by radio to-night that she had been unable to find a trace of the steamship reported afloat yesterday seventy-five miles southeast of Cape Hatteras.

The Manning was sent to the ship's assistance yesterday after a distress call purporting to come from the "Munson" had been picked up by the navy wireless station at Langley Field.

The marine register listed no such vessel, and the Munson, which at first was thought to be the ship in distress, was later reported at Baltimore.

ALCOHOLISM CAUSES THREE DEATHS IN DAY

MICHIGAN DIVIDED ON WINE AND BEER

Ohio Opposes Their Legalization, but Illinois Favors Dry Law Modification.

PROBLEMS OF TAXATION

Michigan Votes Down Income Tax Proposal and Ohio Defeats One Mill Levy.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12 (Associated Press).—A division of opinion as to the advisability of permitting the sale of beer and light wines was recorded in two States of the middle West at last Tuesday's elections. Four States in which a soldier bonus was up returned favorable majorities, according to figures available to-day.

Ohio opposed a Constitutional amendment legalizing the sale of wine and beer, whereas Illinois cast a heavy vote in favor of a modification of State and Federal laws to permit the manufacture, sale and transportation of beer and light wine.

The question of Sunday amusements was raised in only one State in the middle West, South Dakota, which, according to available figures, put a ban on Sunday festivities. The vote was about 2 to 1.

In Illinois, Iowa and Kansas an overwhelming vote in favor of the bonus was polled. In Oklahoma the soldiers' compensation proposal, however, received a slight majority that an official recount may be necessary to determine the issue.

Differ on Taxation.

Questions of taxation, submitted in various ways throughout the central States, showed wide differences of opinion.

Michigan opposed a State Income tax. Ohio defeated a maximum one mill tax levy and Minnesota favored a tax on persons or corporations engaged in mining or producing ores.

Among other financial questions answered in the affirmative by the voters was whether to lend the credit of the State of Minnesota as an aid to development of the agricultural resources of the State.

Approval was given for an act to require any proposed bank in Nebraska to show that the bank is necessary before the bank can be organized.

In South Dakota the voters refused to authorize the State to engage in the banking business.

City Indebtedness.

Wisconsin rejected a Constitutional amendment authorizing any city, in addition to its authorized indebtedness, to incur indebtedness for public improvements. Another proposal approved was that a valid jury verdict in civil cases may be based on the votes of a specified number of the jury, not less than five-sixths.

Nebraska, according to unofficial returns, endorsed an anti-picketing law, but refused to provide that delegates to political conventions be selected by caucus and conventions instead of primary elections.

The defeat of the proposed wine and beer amendment in Ohio was by a much smaller majority than the victory of Minnesota in favor of the State's right to regulate the sale of liquor.

The prohibition vote in Ohio was $92,404, against a negative vote of 712,208. In Illinois returns from 5,121 of the 5,890 precincts in the State showed 52,121 in favor of prohibition modification and 453,243 against any loosening of the present restrictions.

The Illinois bonus proposal provided for a $15,000,000 bond issue and direct tax to pay the bonus. Iowa voted for the issue of $22,000,000 bonds for the same purpose.
